SUMMER SESSION of 1967 JUNE 22—AUGUST 31

(Send for the separate bulletin)

Director: TA-TUAN CH’EN of Princeton University
Dean: RICHARD WILSON of Princeton University

Other members of the Staff include:
MRS. TA-TUAN CH’EN of Princeton University
DR. AND MRS. YING-SHIH YU of Harvard University
MR. JUNG-LANG CHAO of Hamburg University
MRS. DIANA YU-SHIIH MEI of Harvard University
MR. JAMES R. PUSEY of Harvard University
MR. SHIH-CHEN PENG of Seton Hall University

CURRICULUM

The intensive program in Mandarin Chinese, begun so successfully last summer, will be continued. The School lasts ten weeks, and covers a year’s work. The Mandarin Primer and other materials developed at Harvard and Princeton are used. Beginners in Chinese are accepted. Intensive courses are offered in Beginning, Second-year and Third-year Chinese. They are taught in Chinese as much as possible, exclusively so at the third-year level. Contemporary texts supply material for language practice in the third year. Full use is made of the new Language Laboratory.

SPECIAL LECTURES. Each week, distinguished lecturers are invited to spend several days at the School, lecturing in Chinese and English, conducting discussion groups, and providing further vernacular and area material for language practice. Among the guest lecturers who will participate are PROFESSORS H. H. FRANKEL, C. T. Hu, J. C. T. LIIU, and F. W. MOTE.

LIFE IN THE SCHOOL

All students live on campus in dormitories exclusively assigned to the Chinese School. Faculty and staff take their meals with the students and share actively in the social life of the school. Third-year students pledge themselves to use Chinese exclusively among themselves and with the faculty. Second-year students promise to do so to their maximum ability. By mid-session, even the beginners use common phrases with some fluency. Dramatics, singing, and picnics contribute to “living” the language.

FEES AND CORRESPONDENCE. The unit fee for tuition, board and room for the ten weeks is $900. Applications and all correspondence should be addressed to The Chinese School, c/o Dr. Stephen A. Freeman, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont 05753.

A separate complete bulletin with full details, application blanks and information on scholarships and self-help will be sent promptly on request.
The Middlebury College Language Schools were the pioneers in the development of segregated, specialized summer schools for the study of modern languages in this country. The German School was founded in 1915, followed by the French and Spanish Schools in 1916 and 1917 respectively. The German School was reopened in 1931; the Italian School was added in 1932, and the Russian School in 1945. These schools have made a distinctive contribution to educational progress in America, and won for Middlebury an international reputation.

The Middlebury Idea. Thorough training in the use of the foreign language is the foundation of Middlebury’s reputation. These five schools aim to give a mastery of the spoken and written language, and a coordinated knowledge of the life, institutions, literature, history, and culture of the foreign country. The basic Middlebury rule is strictly enforced—the segregation of students from contact with English; complete concentration upon the foreign language; exclusive use of the language in and out of the classroom; and careful attention to the individual needs of each student. Each school has its separate residences and dining halls and a faculty of native instructors. During the entire session, the foreign language is the sole medium of communication in work and play. From the day of arrival, students are pledged to speak the foreign language.

Objectives The schools have long been devoted to the intensive preparation of teachers of languages. At present, the serious shortage of well-trained language teachers makes this function even more significant. The schools have also provided trained linguists for our armed services, for many specialized government agencies, and for scientific research. Language training is essential for those who participate in international organizations, whether political, military, or cultural. It is now recognized that a greatly increased study of foreign languages by the American public is in the national interest. Middlebury offers ideal conditions for such study. The fundamental ideal of the Language Schools of Middlebury College is to help achieve a durable peace and real international cooperation, based on an understanding of our cultural heritage and the thought processes of our neighbors in a small world.

Location The Middlebury Language Schools are located in a lovely Vermont countryside, at the foot of the Green Mountains, fifteen miles from Lake Champlain. They occupy the campus of Middlebury College, founded in 1800 and still one of the most charming of New England colleges. The summer climate is delightful, with clear dry breezes and cool nights. No college in the East offers more attractive opportunities for out-of-door recreation. The program of studies leaves late afternoons and week ends free. Groups of students frequently spend an afternoon hiking in the mountains, swimming at Lake Dunmore or in the college indoor pool. Tennis and golf are available. Lake Champlain, Mount Mansfield, Ticonderoga, the Adirondacks, Lake Placid, or the White Mountains: any of these can be visited in a day’s trip.

Atmosphere The schools endeavor to make everything in the life of a student during his stay contribute as effectively and as pleasantly as possible to the mastery of the foreign language. Similarity of aim among students fosters good comradeship and an esprit de corps; while constant association with instructors at the dining tables, in songs and games, on hikes and picnics, no less than in the classroom, brings both inspirational and intellectual stimulus. Programs of musical concerts, informal sings, foreign films, dramatics, outings and sports are organized.

Admission All the schools are graduate schools. The courses require advanced preparation and real linguistic ability. A very few undergraduate majors may be accepted if they have exceptional preparation. Students may enter without examinations and without being candidates for degrees. All students are carefully screened and placed in the classes best suited to their advancement. Students are admitted for one summer only, and must reapply for any succeeding summer. Veterans should inquire about required documents and procedures.

The Pledge No student will be admitted to a school unless he is able and willing to use only the language of the school, during the entire session, wherever he may be. This rule, which is a cherished and unique tradition of the schools, and a fundamental of the Middlebury method, is consistently enforced from the moment the student enrolls. It holds good for the individual dormitory rooms, all extra-curricular activities, and excursions. It is all-inclusive. Students may use English in their dealings with the people of the village, but even in these cases, students must not speak English to each other. At the opening of the schools, each student will be required to sign a formal statement, pledging his word of honor to observe this rule.
The right is reserved to dismiss students who willfully break it. Only the director or the dean may grant temporary release, upon occasions which may warrant it. If, even after the opening of school, a student is found to be unable to comply with the rules of the school, the administration reserves the right to request him to withdraw and to refund the fees paid.

Academic Status  The quality of instruction offered at the Middlebury Schools is well known. As compared with foreign travel or study, a summer session here is more economical, provides courses better suited to the needs of American teachers, and gives an intensive training not found in foreign institutions. Such study furnishes the indispensable preparation for profitable study in the foreign land. The summer of 1966 brought students from forty-nine different states and six foreign countries. Over 93% of the students held degrees, and over 20% held the Master’s degree or the Doctorate. The majority of the students are candidates for advanced degrees. Three hundred four Master’s degrees were awarded in August, 1966, including those completed in the Schools Abroad.

Equipment  The Sunderland Language Center, completed in 1965, is shared by all the schools, and all students use it free of charge. It is equipped with the most modern facilities for language learning. The sound-proof air-conditioned individual practice cubicles are each provided with a console combining two tape recording and playback machines, permitting the student to work individually on his own exercise, at his own preferred speed and time. The Center also has large collections of literary recordings on tapes and discs. Audiovisual classrooms are equipped for film-strip and synchronized slide showings, recording and playback. The Dana Auditorium provides for concerts, lectures, motion pictures, and panel discussions. All students, especially those in charge of a Language Laboratory, are invited to consult with Professor Watkins, Director of the Language Laboratory, in his office in the Center, by appointment.

The College Library, with its new wings, has extensive collections of books and magazines in all five foreign languages. All students have stack privileges. Each school has its own Bookshop, bringing attractive offerings of books direct from the foreign country. Each school also presents its own collection of realia, illustrative material, and teaching aids.

The Wright Memorial Theatre, near Le Château, with its fine auditorium, complete modern dramatics equipment, and classrooms, is shared by all the schools.

Credits  Each course meeting daily carries two semester hours of credit. Students who wish credits, transcripts, or recommendations must take the final examinations at the close of the session. Not more than six credits may be gained in one summer by an undergraduate, and not more than eight credits by a graduate student. The passing grade is 80 for a graduate student, 70 for an undergraduate.

The Master's Degree A student who wishes to become a candidate for an advanced degree at Middlebury College must apply for it, submitting the necessary documents, including proof of an acceptable A.B. degree or its equivalent. Enrollment in a school or the passing of graduate courses in it does not constitute acceptance as a candidate for a degree. Students cannot be accepted as candidates for the bachelor's degree.

The Middlebury Master's degree in a foreign language requires an approved program of thirty credits, of which twenty must be earned in residence. Transcripts submitted for transfer of credit should be sent to the school before the opening of the session, and prior approval of the study should be secured when possible. Transfer credits expire ten years after the date of the completion of the study. Effective with students who began graduate work after 1956, graduate credits earned at Middlebury College also expire ten years after the date of the completion of the study. Study in a foreign country in courses approved by the dean may be counted. Six credits may be allowed for an equivalent of ninety hours of class exercises followed by examinations. Six credits is the maximum allowed for a single summer session of foreign study. Twenty credits must be earned in the major language; ten may be earned in closely related subjects approved by the dean. A qualified undergraduate may be permitted to accumulate a maximum of twelve graduate credits applicable toward an eventual Master's degree at Middlebury. Students desiring to count credits taken at Middlebury toward degrees to be secured elsewhere should obtain permission to do so from the institution to which they wish the credits transferred. Degrees are conferred in August or at the Commencement following the completion of the work. A graduation fee of $15 is required.

The Degree of Doctor of Modern Languages Middlebury College also offers, through the Foreign Language Schools, the advanced degree of Doctor of Modern Languages (D.M.L.). The main requirements are a thorough knowledge of a major language and its literature; two minor languages; the equivalent of a year's resident study beyond the Master's degree; a year of study in a foreign country; and a thesis written in the major language. Full details will be sent on request.

Living Accommodations Students live in the college dormitories, and board is provided by the college. All rooms are completely furnished by the college; blankets, sheets and towels are supplied. Arrangements for personal laundry may be made after arrival. No accommodations for married couples are available. Students should not live in town, since they fail to receive the full benefit of the Middlebury method, but those who may have a valid reason for doing so must receive permission from the dean of their school. Since dormitory accommodations are limited, students are urged to apply very early, preferably in the preceding autumn. The right is reserved to close applications in any school at any time after February first. Cancellations may make room for later acceptances.
from a waiting list. Acceptance as a student does not guarantee dormitory accommodation.

Health Service  The Infirmary on campus is directed by a resident graduate nurse. She holds regular office hours, and is on call at all times in case of emergency. This service is free to all enrolled students. When the nature of a student's illness requires the services of a doctor, or hospitalization, or special medication, the student assumes all the financial obligations involved, as his fees to the college do not cover them. The tuition fee includes an accident insurance policy with limited coverage. No special diets can be arranged.

Transportation  Middlebury is halfway between Burlington and Rutland, Vermont. Students not arriving by automobile may make bus connections on the Greyhound and Vermont Transit Lines in New York City, Albany, Boston, or Burlington. Bus timetables will be provided on request. There is no railroad passenger service direct to Middlebury. There is scheduled airplane service to Burlington from Boston via Northeast Airlines and from New York via Mohawk Airlines. Baggage should be sent by railway express.

Opening of the Session  All these schools will open the session of 1967 on Friday, June 30 and will continue until August 17. The houses of residence will open to receive students on Friday, June 30, and lunch will be served at 12:30 p.m. No guests can be received earlier. Members of the faculty, and waiters or waitresses may occupy their rooms on Thursday night, June 29. All houses close after lunch, Thursday noon, August 17, and no guests can be accommodated after that time. Commencement exercises will be held on Tuesday evening, August 15.

Enrollment Procedure  Upon arrival, each student must report to the office of his school for enrollment and selection of courses. The offices will be open on Friday and Saturday, June 30 and July 1. Students should then pay their bill at the Office of the Cashier on the first floor of Old Chapel. The Language Schools Office is on the second floor of the Sunderland Language Center. The first assemblies of the schools are held on Sunday evening, July 2. Classes begin at 8:00 a.m., Monday, July 3.

Fees  The administration reserves the right to make any changes without notice in courses, staff, living arrangements, etc. The following information about fees should be carefully noted.

Rates  Rates in all these schools vary according to single or double occupancy of rooms. The inclusive fee for registration, tuition, board and room will be from $495 to $555. The tuition fee for students rooming in town is $300. A student's entire bill is payable at the opening of the session. A bill will be sent in due time, and students are urgently advised to avoid inconvenience by paying it in advance by mail; otherwise bringing all money for fees in the form of money orders, express checks, or cashier's checks. Checks should be made payable to Middlebury College.

Registration Fee Each accepted applicant must pay a $50 registration fee when requested by the Language Schools Office. This fee will be credited to the student's total bill and an applicant is considered officially registered only when he has paid this fee. It is required of every student. No dormitory space is assigned until this fee is received. This fee will be refunded only if notice of cancellation is received by the Secretary of the Language Schools before May first; after May 1 no refund will be made.

Auditors All courses in a school are open to auditing at any time without charge by members of that school, or by members of another of the Language Schools on permission of both the respective deans. Visitors to Middlebury, not members of a school, may be permitted to enroll as auditors, on payment of the fee of $35 a week or $125 for four or more weeks, arrangements to be made in the Language Schools Office. All such auditors are not entitled to take part in class discussions, nor to receive the attention of the professor. Auditors may also attend social events and evening entertainments. Guests of students cannot be accommodated in the college dormitories.

Enrollment in Two Schools A student enrolled in one school may also enroll for credit in another school, on payment of an additional fee of $35 per course, if by reason of his proficiency, he receives the consent of the deans of both schools. This privilege is subject to the limitations of staff and space, and may not be available in certain heavily elected courses. Students interested in a particular course should inquire in advance.

Late Enrollment All students are required to enroll and pay all fees not later than July 3. Enrollment after that day will be accepted only by special permission secured in advance from the dean, and will be subject to a fine of $3.00 for the first day and $1.00 additional for each day late during the first week of classes, after which no enrollments will be accepted. Rooms reserved for students will not be held after July 4 unless permission has been secured in advance from the dean.

Transcript Fees One official transcript of a summer's work will be issued without charge on written request to the College Registrar. A fee of $1.00 is charged for each additional transcript. No transcripts will be issued or grades given to students financially indebted to the college, until satisfactory arrangements have been made at the office of the Cashier.

Refunds Owing to fixed obligations for instruction and maintenance, persons arriving late or leaving school before the close of the session must not expect reimbursement of any charges. No allowances will be made for week-end absences.

Correspondence Correspondence concerning rooms, fees, and other general information, should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College; Middlebury, Vermont 05753. The telephone number is Area 802-388-7973. Correspondence concerning admissions to a particular school, courses, credits and self-help should be addressed to the Director or Dean of the school concerned.
École Française

(FROM JUNE 30 TO AUGUST 17)

The French School will continue this summer the development of the new trends initiated in the last three years. Two Visiting Professors will be coming from France. M. Ferdinand Alquié, Professor at the Sorbonne, will offer a course on Descartes and his influence on French thought. M. Gaëtan Piccon, the well-known literary historian, will discuss the modern notion of literature. Professor Jean-Albert Bédé, of Columbia University, will be the Visiting Lecturer and will reevaluate the intellectual crisis at the turn of the century. Again, no period of French literature will be neglected. Among others, Professor Joseph Palermo will give his popular courses on Medieval studies, Professor Jean Bruneau of Harvard and Lyon will present original views on the evolution of the epic genre, Dean Claude Bourcier will revisit Surrealism. Two courses on Explications de textes will be offered, the regular one by Professor Jean Vadon and a second one, viewed from the special vantage point of the Advanced Placement Program, by the Director, Professor Jean Boorsch of Yale. In the Language Section a totally new course on creative writing, modelled on the organization of the French "dissertation," will be initiated. The theatrical activities will be again in the hands of M. Roland Monod, who will also present a course on the Théâtre en Liberté.

COURSES OF STUDY

I. Language

11. ADVANCED FRENCH STYLISTICS. Designed to give advanced students a finer feeling for French style, a sense for shades of meaning, a mastery of certain difficulties not discussed in more elementary courses. Theoretical lessons in stylistics; advanced exercises in translation and composition. Strictly limited to fifteen students.

9:00  M. TERRIER.

12. ADVANCED COMPOSITION. For students who, having a good knowledge of French, have not yet mastered certain peculiarities of syntax and phrasing. Texts of increasing difficulty translated into French; a few compositions; class discussions. Sections limited to fifteen students.

8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00, 12:00

MM. GUIET, RAMBAUD, TERRIER, Mlle VINCENT.

8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00, 12:00

MM. GIRAULT, LEVY, Mlle NOËL.

14. ADVANCED PRACTICE IN WRITING. Exercises in creative writing. Systematic practice in self-expression; emphasis on style and structural organization.

8:00, 9:00  Mlle GRILLET.

Note: A written test will be given early in all the Language Courses. According to the results of this test, students will be assigned to the proper section of the course in which they registered, or to another course in this group.

II. Phonetics and Diction

21. DICTION, INTONATION, ELOCUTION. Intended to complete the work done in phonetics. Aims to impart, not an artificial pronunciation, but the expressive and musical shading for French diction, used in ordinary conversation as well as in public reading or speaking. Two sections (9:00 and 10:00, limited to twelve students) will work especially on dramatic texts. Previous training in Phonetics required.

9:00, 10:00 11:00, 12:00  Mme MONOD, Mme WATKINS.

22. ADVANCED PHONETICS. A lecture course on the physiology, acoustics, and perception of speech and the phonetic characteristics of French. Prerequisite: Intermediate Phonetics or equivalent.

9:00, 10:00  M. MALÉCOT.

23. INTERMEDIATE PHONETICS. Designed to acquaint the student with the articulatory detail of French and to perfect his own accent. Required practice in the Language Center with recorded models.

8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00, 12:00  M. MALÉCOT, Mme WATKINS, Mllles ALLOIN, Rossi.

24. ELEMENTARY PHONETICS. A scientific approach to French pronunciation. Methodical comparison of French and English sounds. For students who never studied phonetics, or never attacked the problem of their pronunciation in a scientific manner. (Undergraduate credit only).

10:00  Mlle ALLOIN.

Notes: 1. In all Phonetics and Diction Classes, placement tests will be given at the beginning, and each section will be limited to fifteen students.

2. In all Phonetics and Diction classes, intensive audio-oral training is provided, and all students are required to make regular use of the facilities of the Language Center.
III. Methods and Professional Training

32. THE ADVANCED PLACEMENT PROGRAM. STUDIES IN LITERARY ANALYSIS. The course will provide a study of the problems involved in the teaching of the Advanced Program, with special emphasis on the questions of literary analysis. The texts studied will be those of the A. P. reading list (CEEB Manual on A.P. Program, p. 99). Recommended to all teachers of literature courses on the secondary level.

8:00 M. Boorsch.

34. AUDIO-VISUAL MEDIA AND LANGUAGE LABORATORY METHODS. Intended: 1). to acquaint the student with the various technical aids of the language laboratory and their manipulation; 2). to assess their potentialities and limitations; and 3). to discuss their application to the diverse aspects and levels of language teaching.

12:00 M. Watkins.

36. THE FIRST TWO YEARS OF FRENCH IN COLLEGE. Intensity for students beginning, and diversity among those continuing French in College pose specific problems. The course proposes to examine certain solutions in the light of new materials, methods and aids.

9:00 M. Watkins.

Note: All the students of the School, especially teachers and foreign language supervisors, are invited to avail themselves of the Consultation Service offered, through individual appointments, by Professor Watkins, Director of the Language Laboratory, in his office at the Language Center.

IV. Literature and Civilization

44. FRENCH CIVILIZATION IN A CHANGING WORLD. The geographical, historical, economic, social, and cultural factors that make an understanding of French and its civilization possible will be studied in the light of the problems which France has to meet, faced as she is with the challenge of a fast changing world.

9:00, 10:00 M. Kaspi.

8:00 M. Palermo.

10:00 M. Palermo.

52. RABELAIS, MONTAIGNE, AND THE FRENCH RENAISSANCE PROBLEM. The conflict between the medieval world picture and the modern conception of man, society and the universe, as reflected in the works of Rabelais and Montaigne. The two opposite aspects of humanism: from the optimism of Gargantua and Pantagruel to the scepticism of the Essais. Rabelais, Montaigne, and our time.

8:00 M. Vadon.

53. DESCARTES AND FRENCH THOUGHT. The course will strive to show that Cartesianism is much more than a narrow rationalism, father to positivism, and that the influence of the philosophy of Descartes should not be confined to the domains of methodology and clear and distinct ideas. It will uncover the wealth of Descartes' thought and trace its authentic lineage through a multiplicity of different authors such as Bossuet, Rousseau, Maine de Biran, Valéry, Sartre, and even the surrealists.

11:00 M. ALQUIÉ.

54. THEATER AND SOCIETY IN THE EIGHTEENTH CENTURY. The course will analyze the connection between 18th century theater and the general evolution of society, in order to illustrate the part played by the stage in the development of the Age of Enlightenment. Besides the theoretical writings of Diderot, Beaumarchais and J. J. Rousseau, the course will study the main plays of Regnard, Lesage, Marivaux, Diderot, Sédaine and Beaumarchais.

10:00 M. RAMBAUD.

55. JEAN-JACQUES ROUSSEAU. The course will underline the coexistence in Rousseau of the most radical subjectivism with a coherent system of thought which has exerted a decisive influence on the evolution of the Western mind. It will study the "intellectual reform" and the break with the Enlightenment; natural man and society; subjectivism and language.

11:00 M. RIVELAYGUE.

56. FRENCH EPIC POETRY, A SURVEY OF A LITERARY GENRE. Introduction to medieval epic; classical epic (Ronsard, Boileau, Voltaire); romantic epic (Chateaubriand, Lamartine, Hugo), with emphasis on the theories from the XVIth to the XVIIIth centuries, and on works of the XIXth century. 9:00 M. BRUNEAU.

57. ROMANTICISM. An attempt to define the nature and discern the main trends of the Romantic Revolution, through the careful study of selected works. Emphasis on the "Renaissance Orientale," the autobiographical novel and lyrical poetry.

11:00 M. BRUNEAU.

58. 1890: FRENCH LITERATURE AT THE CROSSROADS. Professor J-A. Bédé will deliver five lectures during the second week. M. Rivelaygue will direct on a free schedule the essays on related subjects which the students enrolled in the course will present. The five lectures will discuss: 1. Naturalism in crisis. 2. The Bankruptcy of Science. 3. Idealism on the march. 4. The advent of Bergsonism. 5. New currents from without and from within. 4:00, second week, M. J-A. Bédé; Directed studies, M. RIVELAYGUE.

59. SURREALISM. The course will attempt to: 1. trace the origins of this most important "movement" of the twentieth century (Rimbaud, Lautréamont, Apollinaire, "Dada", etc.); 2. define it, through a careful analysis of its essential manifestations, and the personalities involved (Breton, Soupault, Desnos, Eluard, Bunuel, etc.); and, 3. discern its latest influences and implications in various aspects of our intellectual, cultural, and artistic life (Bonnefoy, Du Bouchet, "Pop Art," etc.). 9:00 M. BOURCIER.

60. THE MODERN NOTION OF LITERATURE. From the Romantic period to the present, through Baudelaire, Flaubert, Mallarmé, Rimbaud, Valéry, the Surrealists, Sartre, Blanchot, etc. . . , the modern notion of literature emerges both as a dialectic of history in which one sees a mutual interplay of the most significant literary works, and as a problematic whose oscillating currents will be traced in the course. The works studied will be considered from the points of view of their creators and their critics, and in their more objective reality.

12:00 M. PICON.

61. LE THÉÂTRE EN LIBERTÉ. A century ago, V. Hugo was writing his Théâtre en liberté, a series of plays conceived in freedom to be played only on the imaginary stage which is in every man's mind. Those plays, and other epochal ones written by his epigones have presided over the birth of the new theater. Four works will be studied: V. Hugo: Le Théâtre en liberté; P. Claudel: Le Soulier de satin; J. Genêt: Le Balcon; A. Gatti: Le Voyage du Grand Tchou.

63. EXPLICATION DE TEXTES. Reading and interpretation of French texts, according to a method extensively used in French schools and universities. Demonstrations and criticisms by the instructor, preparation and oral practice by the students. The texts chosen will extend from the seventeenth to the nineteenth century, included.

10:00 M. MONOD.

Note: All students, especially doctorate candidates, who are working on a problem of literary research or any other academic project, should not fail to profit by the individual guidance offered by the school staff. Personal interviews and consultations will be arranged with members of the staff who specialize in the same field.

V. Oral Practice

71. ADVANCED ORAL PRACTICE AND SELF-EXPRESSION. Carefully screened sections, limited to ten students. Intensive training in oral practice and self-expression. A detailed program for each hour; prepared discussions on assigned subjects, with definite vocabulary preparation and the building of discussion skills. (Required for the Master’s Degree).

MME PICON, VADON, TERRIER.

72. PATTERNS OF CONVERSATIONAL FRENCH. A systematic course on the graduate level for students who already possess a real degree of oral fluency but need to acquire the habit of spoken language patterns which will make possible a spontaneity in self-expression. Students are rigorously screened at enrollment time and during the first class meetings, and sections are strictly limited to ten qualified students.

8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00, 12:00
MME ORANERS, MLLS SERVET, EDELSTEIN.

75. VOCABULARY AND ORAL PRACTICE. A systematic course for students who understand French readily but need to gain confidence and efficiency in speaking. The students will discuss topics and materials methodically organized.

8:00, 9:00, 10:00, 11:00, 12:00
M. GUILLOTON, MMS ALQUIÉ, KASPI.

Note: Enrollment in all Oral Practice courses is on a tentative basis. At the end of the first week, students will be assigned to the proper course, according to their ability.

CURRICULUM REGULATIONS

Credits. Courses 11 (Stylistics) and 12 (Advanced Composition) may, with the consent of the Dean, be taken a second summer for credit, since the material of the course is varied each year.

Requirements for Degrees. Candidates for the Master’s degree must pass, before completion of their work, one advanced course at least in each of the following fields: Language (12 or 11), Phonetics (23 or 22), Methods (32, 34 or 36), Civilization (44), and Oral Practice (71), and earn not less than six credits in advanced courses in literature. Students who transfer credits for equivalent courses taken elsewhere may request release from the corresponding requirements. A special leaflet, sent on request, gives the rules governing the degree of Master of Arts in French. (For the D.M.L., see page 7).

(René de Obaldia’s L’Azote, as staged last year by the French School)

LIFE IN THE SCHOOL

Use of French  No student will be admitted unless he is able and willing to use only French at all times, during the seven weeks of the session. Each student, when enrolled, will sign a formal statement, pledging his word of honor to observe this rule. The School reserves the right to refuse admission, at the opening of the session, to any student who fails to satisfy this basic requirement, and to dismiss, at any time, students who willfully break the rule. (See page 5).

Consultations  The office of the Director is in the Sunderland Language Center; that of the Dean is in Le Château. The entire staff of the School is at the disposal of all students for counselling, at regular consultation hours announced early in the session, or by appointment.

Books  The collections of French books, in the College Library and the Château contain over 12,000 volumes dealing with all phases of French study—language, literature, history, civilization, art, and teaching methods.

General supplies, dictionaries and textbooks published in this country can be purchased at the College Bookstore, in Proctor Hall. La Librairie française, in the Château, attempts to reproduce a bookshop in France, handling French classics and reference works, but specializing in contemporary novels, poetry, drama, and non-fiction.
Realia Museum  A unique collection of illustrative material—provincial costumes, models of regional houses, dolls, Guignol accessories, children's books, magazines, games, posters, postcards and photographs, also extensive files of other suggestions, and appropriate addresses—is on display, and may be consulted during regular daily hours.

Equipment  For a description of the new Sunderland Language Laboratory, see page 6. In addition, the School is well supplied with all types of diversifed equipment—maps, charts, film strips and slides on French geography, history and art. Movies of an instructional nature are shown and discussed. Extensive use is made of mimeographed or lithographed material, each class being supplied with outlines, bibliographies, and exercises, free or at nominal cost.

Planned Activities  The organized activities of the School are designed to make the life of the students as enjoyable and as profitable as possible:

Formal lectures, or informal "causeries," are occasionally presented by the Director, other professors, or visiting guest lecturers.

A weekly "Gazette" is published by the School, giving advance notice of all interesting events, information about job openings, etc.

Every Sunday morning, the College Chapel is used by the French School for an hour of instrumental and vocal music, and readings from spiritual or philosophical writings.

The French School Choir of one hundred voices is a celebrated feature.

In cooperation with the other Language Schools, the French School also presents foreign moving pictures, on Wednesday afternoons and evenings, and chamber music or vocal concerts by guest artists, on Sunday evenings.

Picnics, community sings, sports, and a picturesque buffet lawn-supper afford occasions for continued association with the faculty and easy, spontaneous use of the language. Above all, the School is able to offer five dramatic presentations during the summer, usually on Friday nights. Carefully prepared, with painstaking attention to scenery, lighting, costuming, and staging, they always attract a large and appreciative audience, provide relaxation, and acquaint the teacher-students with simple yet effective plays that can be duplicated in their own schools without undue effort.

Dormitories  The main dormitories of the French School are Le Château, Forest Hall, and Battell North, Center and South.

The identifying feature of the French School, and a cherished landmark of the campus, le Château was inspired by the Pavillon Henri IV of the palace of Fontainebleau. It contains two salons, two classrooms, a library, and the offices of the Dean.

In Forest Hall, one of the finest dormitories on the campus, all rooms are single. It also has beautiful reception and dining rooms.

Battell North, Center and South, on the approach to the Château, are built in a modified Georgian style, with pleasant rooms of modern design.

Dining Halls  In the three dining halls of the School, the students gather at small tables, with a member of the staff presiding. Students and staff members rotate according to a prearranged schedule, enabling all to get better acquainted.
Scholarships  A certain number of scholarships, usually covering part or all of the tuition fee, are awarded on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Grateful acknowledgement is made of the following special scholarships, made possible through the generosity of friends of the School:

Two James Richardson Scholarships, by Mrs. James Richardson of Providence, R. I.;
The Stella Christie Scholarship, by Mrs. C. C. Conover of Kansas City;
Several scholarships, by anonymous donors;
An unspecified number of scholarships, by the French Government;
A Mlle Léa Binand Scholarship, established by Mrs. Robert Christie, of Montclair, N. J., in honor of a member of long standing of the French School and the Middlebury College French Department Faculties, to be awarded through l'Amicale de Middlebury;
Two $100 and three full-tuition scholarships, by L'Amicale de Middlebury:
the Edith Packer Scholarship, in memory of a friend of long standing of the French School, one of the founders of L'Amicale;
the John D. Brennan Scholarship, in memory of one of the first members of L'Amicale, a French School graduate, and the Vincent Guilloton Scholarship, in honor of the former Director of the School, now retired after fifteen years of devoted and successful service.

Self-Help  The only other way in which a student may assist in defraying his expenses is by waiting on table in the French dining halls, or by helping with kitchen work. Remuneration may vary, depending on the type of work done, but will, at least, cover board at the School.

Scholarship and Self-Help Applications  Application blanks for either form of financial aid may be obtained from the Dean’s Office. They should be filed before March 15 in order to be considered for the first listing of awards. Announcement of awards is made soon after April first.

Graduate School in France  See the inside back cover of this bulletin.

Amicale de Middlebury  This Association of Alumni, Professors, Students and Friends of the French School is destined to maintain the spirit of fellowship and comradeship among all those who have been associated with the School, or who approve of its aims; and to promote activities designed to further those aims. Particulars will be sent on request.

Correspondence  Correspondence concerning admission to the school, courses, credits, degrees, scholarships, self-help and the “Amicale” should be addressed to the Dean of the French Summer School, Le Chateau, Middlebury, Vt.

Correspondence concerning rooms, fees and other general information should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vt.
Deutsche Schule
(From June 30 to August 17)

The Middlebury German School, which will hold its fortieth session this summer, is the forerunner of all the Middlebury Language Schools. It was founded in 1915 by Professor Marian P. Whitney and Professor Lilian L. Stroebe, both of Vassar College. Dr. Stroebe was its Director until 1917. When the School reopened in the summer of 1931, the late Professor Ernst Feise of the Johns Hopkins University was appointed its Director, and the School was located in the village of Bristol. Upon the retirement of Dr. Feise in 1948, Dr. Werner Neuse, who had been Dean of the School since 1932, was appointed Director. The School returned to the Middlebury Campus in 1951, where it occupies as its center Pearsons Hall, in which it was begun fifty-two years ago.

Three prominent guest lecturers will come direct from Germany, England, and Italy. We are happy to announce the appointment of Professor Dr. Ulrich Fülleborn, Ordinarius and Professor of Modern German Literature at the University of Erlangen-Nürnberg. He will lecture on Rainer Maria Rilke and hold a seminar course on the Theory of Fiction.

Professor Dr. Hans S. Reiss comes to us from the University of Bristol, England, after teaching at McGill University for eight years. He will discuss Goethe's prose works in a lecture course and hold a seminar on Franz Kafka.

Our third Visiting Professor is Dr. Emmy Rosenfeld who will again lecture on the German Barock Period as she did in the summer of 1964. Her seminar course this time will treat the Swiss poet and writer Gottfried Keller and his Novellenkunst.

LIFE IN THE SCHOOL

The Aims  The school is designed for advanced students who, possessing a good speaking and reading knowledge of German, wish to perfect their ability to use it, and to deepen and broaden their acquaintance with German literature and its cultural background. A limited number of undergraduate majors who are strongly recommended by their instructors may be admitted.

Accommodations  The School's headquarters, dormitory for women, reading-room and bookstore are in Pearsons Hall, the same building in which fifty-one years ago the first German School was opened. Faculty and students dine together in Gifford Hall, rotating at tables according to a fixed schedule so that all may get better acquainted. After the weekday noon meal, German songs are sung in the Lounge in Alumni Hall. The historic Painter and Starr Halls and one floor of the new Allen Hall on the campus will again be the School's dormitories for 1967.

Lectures and Plays  Beside a number of scheduled lectures, there will be readings, games, and plays after dinner on a regular schedule. "Literarische Sonntagsandachten," not conflicting with local church services, will be held every Sunday morning.

Recreation and Sports On the first two Saturdays, the school organizes trips or hikes into the near-by Green Mountains or to lakes in the Champlain Valley. Faculty members regularly participate in these outings, and students will enjoy this period of week-end relaxation during which the foreign language is used in an atmosphere different from that of the classroom. Students join in the folk dances which are taught on the lawn at the foot of Pearsons.

Bookstore At the Bücherstube in Pearsons Hall books used in the courses may be purchased; also other books imported directly from Germany are offered for sale at moderate prices.

Opportunities for Service All waiters and waitresses in the German School dining hall must be able to speak German. Opportunity is therefore offered to a limited number of students to earn their board and a credit on the room fee in return for their service in the kitchen or dining hall. Those interested should file application blanks before March 15.

Scholarships The German School offers several scholarships of $100.00 or more for the 1967 session. Besides these, three special scholarships are available:

The Martin Sommerfeld Memorial Scholarship, established by the students and faculty in memory of Professor Sommerfeld who taught in the summer of 1939.

The Arno Schirokauer Memorial Scholarship, established by FIDES in memory of Professor Schirokauer who formerly taught in the German School.

The Ernst Feise Memorial Scholarship, established by FIDES in memory of Professor Feise who was the Director of the School from 1931 to 1948.

These three scholarships are from $100 to $300 each. An unspecified number of scholarships by the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany are offered. All are awarded on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Application blanks must be filed before March 15. The awards and the appointments will be announced by April first.

Scuola Italiana

(FROM JUNE 30 TO AUGUST 17)

THE ITALIAN SCHOOL of Middlebury College was founded in 1932 by the late Dr. Gabriella Bosano. Dr. Camillo P. Merlino, of Boston University, was its Director for ten years, beginning with the 1938 session. Since 1947, Dr. Salvatore J. Castiglione, now Jean Thomson Fulton Professor of Italian at Middlebury College, has been the Director.

Professor Ruggero Stefanini, of the University of California (Berkeley), a member of the Italian School faculty in 1965, will be Visiting Professor for the 1967 session. Other members of the staff will be Dr. Franco Ferrucci, of New York University, and the following faculty members of previous sessions of the School: Dr. Clavio Ascari, Dr. Pierina Castiglione, Dr. Giuliana Cavallini, Miss Annunciata Costa and Dr. Marisa Lederer. In addition to such regularly offered courses as Dante and His Times, A General View of Italian Civilization, Italian Prose Masterpieces and The Teaching of Italian, the 1967 curriculum will include courses on La Lirica Stilnovistica, to be offered by Visiting Professor Stefanini, on Realism in Italian Literature and on The Italian Theatre of the 18th Century.

Among the scholarships available for the 1967 session are three AMISA Scholarships offered by the Association of Middlebury Italian School Alumni, five scholarships offered by Dr. Nicholas Locascio, and several Cesare Barbieri partial-tuition scholarships.

The seventeenth annual summer meeting of AMISA will be held in Middlebury, July 14–16.

THE COURSES OF STUDY

I. Language

1. INTERMEDIATE GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION. A thorough review of the structure of the language; vocabulary building; written and oral practice, including free composition. This course aims to impart a reasonable degree of proficiency in spoken and written Italian. (Undergraduate credit only)

10:00 SIGNORA CASTIGLIONE.

2. ADVANCED GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION. An advanced course for students possessing a good knowledge of Italian. It will consist of translations from English to Italian of texts of increasing difficulty, and practice in original composition. Frequent reference will be made to grammar and syntax in the systematic study of idioms.

8:00, 12:00 SIGNORA LEDERER, SIGNOR ASCARI.

4. ADVANCED ORAL PRACTICE AND SELF-EXPRESSION. Intensive training in oral practice, public speaking and self-expression. A detailed program arranged for each hour; prepared discussion on assigned subjects, with definite vocabulary preparation; short debates, oral reports, oral criticism of books and articles.

10:00 SIGNORINA COSTA, SIGNORA LEDERER.

5. PHONETICS. A practical study of Italian Phonetics, based on the reading aloud of carefully chosen prose and poetry selections; emphasis not only on the correct pronunciation of Italian sounds, but also on the proper intonation of spoken Italian; classroom work will be integrated with extensive use of records and tape recordings.

9:00 SIGNORA CASTIGLIONE.

6. STYLISTICS. This course is designed to meet, through carefully planned exercises, the needs of those who have already acquired general proficiency in the language. It aims to develop natural fluency, both in writing and speaking, through emphasizing the difference between what is merely correct and what is Italian.

8:00 SIGNOR ASCARI.

II. Methods of Teaching

10. THE TEACHING OF ITALIAN. Discussion of methods and problems; examination of textbooks, audio-visual aids and other materials available for the teaching of Italian; assembling of material for classroom and laboratory use; development of an experimental course in Italian.

11:00 SIGNORINA COSTA.

III. Literature and Culture

11. GENERAL VIEW OF ITALIAN CIVILIZATION. I. (Eleventh through Fifteenth Centuries.) The major contributions of Italian genius to the Western World in literature and in the arts will be considered against the historical background of the Middle Ages and the Early Renaissance.

12:00 SIGNORINA CAVALLINI.

12. GENERAL VIEW OF ITALIAN CIVILIZATION. II. (To be offered in 1968.) (Sixteenth through Eighteenth Centuries.)

13. ITALIAN PROSE MASTERPIECES. This course is designed to acquaint the student with the most important prose writers of Italian literature, from Dante to modern times. Readings, discussions, reports.

9:00 SIGNOR FERRUCCI.

14. DANTE AND HIS TIMES (THE INFERNO). In the course of three summers the Divina Commedia is read and analyzed in the light of the literary, political and religious ideals of the Middle Ages. In 1967 the Inferno will be the object of special study. This course may be taken for credit in three successive summers.

10:00 SIGNOR STEFANINI.
15. SURVEY OF POETRY. (To be offered in 1968.)

16. REALISM IN ITALIAN LITERATURE. A study of the development of the realistic approach to reality in Italian literature, from Machiavelli to the present day. Discussions and reports. 11:00 Signor Ferrucci.

17. ITALIAN THEATER OF THE 18TH CENTURY. A study of the most significant works of the 18th century theater, in the fields of melodrama, comedy, and tragedy, ranging from Metastasio to Alfieri. Discussions and reports. 11:00 Signorina Cavallini.

18. LA LIRICA STILNOVISTICA. After a brief survey of the Florentine literary milieu around the middle of the XIIIth century, the course will study the development of the love lyric in Bologna and Florence, dealing particularly with the works of Guinizelli, Cavalcanti, and Dante, and, finally, with the transformation of this poetic tradition in Cino's Canzoniere. 9:00 Signor Stefanini.

19. RESEARCH. All students, especially candidates for the doctorate who are working on a problem of research, are invited to profit by the individual guidance offered by the school staff. Consultations will be arranged through the Director. Such assistance is gladly offered, and students are urged to take advantage of it.

Signor Castiglione and Staff.

Credits Course 2 (Adv. Grammar and Comp.) and Course 6 (Stylistics) may be taken twice for credit, as the material of the course varies each year. Course 14 (Dante) may be taken three times for credit, once on the Inferno, once on the Purgatorio, and once on the Paradiso.

Life in the School

Italian Dormitories  Forest Hall West, one of the most attractive buildings on the Middlebury College campus, is the Italian School’s main dormitory and dining hall. Equipped with several social rooms and surrounded by shaded lawns, this dormitory lends itself to the atmosphere of friendly informality, one of the main features of the Middlebury experience. A section of Allen Hall is also used by the Italian School. Dr. and Mrs. Castiglione and other faculty members reside on campus, thus actively promoting the spirit of good fellowship in an Italian atmosphere, and making the student feel that the exclusive use of Italian is both a natural and an enjoyable exercise. The Director’s Office is in the Language Center.

The Italian Dining Room  In the attractive dining hall of the Italian School, the hum of conversation is natural and spontaneous. Prompted and guided by understanding instructors who preside at each table, the students quickly overcome their linguistic shyness. In order to get better acquainted with one another and with all the instructors, students are required to rotate according to a fixed schedule.

Activities  The afternoons are left free for recreation and study. Students and teachers meet frequently in the evening for readings, lectures, choral assemblies, and social gatherings. All students are expected to take part in the weekly choral assembly and to attend extracurricular lectures and programs. The school picnics, tennis, the popular game of “bocce,” volleyball, as well as hiking, afford further pleasant relaxation.

Books  A well-balanced and constantly expanding collection of Italian books, housed in the College Library, amply provides for the needs of the students. In addition, textbooks and other aids for the teaching of Italian will be available for examination. In Forest West there is also an Italian bookshop at which students will be able to purchase the texts required for class work, as well as dictionaries and a variety of books of classic and modern Italian literature.

Scholarships  For the summer of 1967, a number of scholarships are available. These will be awarded on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Application should be made to the Director before March 15; awards will be announced about April first. Grateful acknowledgement is made of the following special scholarships, made possible through the generosity of friends of the School:

- The Italian Teachers’ Club of Hartford, Conn., Scholarship, offered for the twenty-eighth consecutive year.
- Three scholarships given by the Association of Middlebury Italian School Alumni (AMISA).
- Five scholarships offered by Dr. Nicholas Locascio, of New York City.
- A number of Cesare Barbieri partial-tuition scholarships, made possible by a gift from the Cesare Barbieri Endowment.

Self-Help  All waiters and waitresses are students at the school who are able to use Italian exclusively in the dining room. The remuneration for this service is board, and a credit on the room charge. Those interested should make application to Dr. Castiglione before March 15; awards will be announced about April first.

AMISA  Membership in the Association of Middlebury Italian School Alumni, established in 1950, is open to students, past and present, faculty members and friends of the Italian School. The aims of the Association are "to encourage and advance, culturally and materially, the Italian School," to keep its members informed of the activities of the School and its students, and to maintain the spirit of cordiality which the members associate with the Italian School.

Correspondence  Correspondence concerning admission, credits, and choice of courses should be addressed to Dr. Salvatore J. Castiglione, Director of the Italian Summer School, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont 05753.

Correspondence concerning fees, rooms, and other general information should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont 05753.
Institute of Soviet Studies

Conducted entirely in Russian

JUNE 30 TO AUGUST 17, 1967

Initiated in 1958 by Dr. Mischa H. Fayer, under a grant from the Rockefeller Foundation, the Institute of Soviet Studies offers courses in Russian taught by outstanding native authorities in the fields of economics, foreign policy, government, geography, the press and scientific Russian. The Institute aims to give the student in these fields near-native fluency in Russian and competence in the technical terminology of his specialization, not only for reading and research, but also for oral use; and to prepare American students better for diplomatic, scientific and other careers. The courses are especially valuable for specialists, scientists, and scholars preparing for cultural exchange.

Organization  Students enrolled in the Institute enjoy all the privileges and share in all the activities of the Russian School. They are pledged to the exclusive use of Russian; they share the dormitory and dining room facilities of the School; they attend the evening lectures, concerts, plays, and all other extra-curricular activities in the Russian atmosphere. Language and literature courses offered in the Russian School are open to students enrolled in the Institute. Courses in either the Institute or the Russian School lead to an M.A. or a D.M.L. degree. One may enroll without being a candidate for a degree. Adequate command of Russian for advanced specialized study in the language, and its exclusive use in and outside the classroom is required for admission.

Credits and Requirements  All courses in the Institute carry two credits toward the M.A. and the D.M.L. degrees. The Institute awards the M.A. degree in the field of Russian and Soviet Area studies. To satisfy the requirements for this degree, the candidate must take the following courses in the Russian School or their equivalents, previously approved by the Director:

Group I—2 or 23

Group II—one survey course of the 19th century (28, 30, 33, 34)

and one course on contemporary literature (31 or 39)

and one course on an individual author (29, 35, 38, 39)

Group III—a history or civilization course on the Tsarist Period and a history or civilization course on the Soviet Period offered in the Institute.

Similar courses, offered in the Russian School, are also acceptable: (40, 41, 44, 46, 47) with the approval of the Director.

Admission  The Institute is essentially a graduate school and the courses are of an advanced nature, requiring advanced preparation in Russian and in the field of specialization. All applicants must provide evidence of sufficient competence in Russian. A few undergraduates may be accepted if they are strongly recommended by their professors as having adequate preparation. Students may enter without being candidates for degrees. All students are carefully screened and placed in the classes best suited for their advancement.
THE RUSSIAN SCHOOL of Middlebury College was founded in 1945 by the Director, Dr. Mischa H. Fayer. Starting with 40 students and a staff of four, the School's facilities and faculty have increased to accommodate 150 students. The rapid growth of the School testifies to the increasing need in our country for closer knowledge of Russia, past and present, and for deeper understanding of recent trends in her development. Mindful of this fact, the Director has organized a program of courses to answer present needs and to prepare American specialists in the field of Russian studies.

In addition to the specialized and technical courses offered by the Institute of Soviet Studies, the offerings of the Russian School will also be of great interest to government and armed forces personnel and to students of history, political science and the sciences. In its twenty-third session, the School, in combination with its Institute, is equipped as never before, to provide thorough training for students of Russia's humanistic culture, as well as for those preparing for teaching, diplomatic, scientific, and other careers.

One of the highlights of the session will be the thirteenth “Alumni Weekend” (July 28-July 30).

The curriculum will include the following lecture and seminar courses:
- Stylistics,
- History of the Russian Language,
- Russian Fiction of the Turn of the Century,
- Literary Masters of the 19th Century,
- Dostoevsky: His Works and Influence,
- Survey of Russian Literature to 1800,
- and Methods of Teaching Russian.

Institute courses are also open to qualified students in the Russian School.

THE COURSES OF STUDY

I. Language

11. ADVANCED GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION—FIRST LEVEL. Compositions of gradually increasing difficulty. Study of synonyms and idioms; dictation. Practical application of grammatical principles. MRS. KALIKIN, MRS. KLIMOV.

12. ADVANCED CONVERSATION—FIRST LEVEL. Daily training in conversational Russian, designed to provide the student with assurance in self-expression and a basic active vocabulary. Oral reports and class discussions requiring active student participation. Facilities of the Language Laboratory will be used, including listening to tape recordings and self-testing. MR. JANIN, MRS. KLIMOV.

14. PHONETICS. A practical study of Russian phonetics, based on reading aloud selections from prose and poetry. The emphasis will be on correct pronunciation and intonation. Classroom work will be supplemented by intensive use of the language laboratory. Enrollment will be restricted to those most in need of remedial work. MRS. VUKANOVICH AND STAFF.

15. ADVANCED GRAMMAR AND COMPOSITION—SECOND LEVEL. Study of the more complex points of grammar with special emphasis on the aspects and on verbs of motion. Practice in the use of idiomatic expressions. The work will consist of exercises, original compositions, and class discussions. MRS. ISYUMOV, MRS. KALIKIN.

21. ADVANCED COMPOSITION AND SYNTAX—THIRD LEVEL. Intended for students with a thorough knowledge of grammar. Intensive review of syntax. Original compositions on a great variety of topics. Class discussions. MRS. WOLKONSKY, MR. KALIKIN.

22. ADVANCED CONVERSATION—THIRD LEVEL. Oral analysis and criticism of assigned books and articles. Reading of newspapers and discussion of current events. Intended primarily to develop self-confidence in expressing ideas in Russian. MISS ALEXEIEFF, MR. JANIN.

23. STYLISTICS. Intended for students with native or near-native command of Russian who wish to develop greater precision in expression and a finer feeling for shades of meaning and style. Reading of texts of various types and difficulty will be combined with written compositions. MR. GREBENSCHIKOV.

25. HISTORY OF THE RUSSIAN LANGUAGE. The origin of the Russian language and its place among other modern Indo-European and Slavic languages. Grammatical, lexical and stylistical contributions of Old Colloquial Russian and Old Literary Slavonic to the shaping of Modern Literary Russian. Analysis of chosen texts from the XII-XVII centuries. Historical explanations of some essential grammatical and lexical peculiarities of Modern Russian.

MR. GREBENCSCHIKOV.

LIFE IN THE SCHOOL

Use of Russian To qualify for admission, students must be able and willing to speak only Russian during the entire session, even in their rooms and off campus. At the opening of the School each student will be required to pledge his word of honor to observe this rule. Although it is the duty of the faculty to enforce this rule at all times, their sympathetic encouragement to use the language freely will, in a short time, make it appear as the only language natural in the congenial, friendly Russian atmosphere. The School reserves the right to dismiss, at any time, students who willfully break the rule.

Living Accommodations Stewart Hall, one of the finest dormitories on the campus, is the headquarters of the Russian School. The view from Stewart lounge is superb. The Director’s Office is in the Language Center. In Proctor Dining Hall, students eat in small groups, each table presided over by a member of the faculty. A system of rotation at meals provides opportunity for all to become better acquainted.

Activities All extra-curricular activities play an important part in mastering the language, and students are expected to participate actively. The schedule of classes is arranged to leave the afternoons free for study and recreation. Picnics, excursions to nearby lakes and mountains, “vecherinki” with musical and dramatic entertainments, lectures by instructors and guest speakers, informal singing, and Russian movies, provide ample recreational activity. Regular evenings for study of Russian dances have been set aside. Weekly sings are held in the Proctor Lounge. Several plays will be staged under the direction of Mr. Janin. The highlights of the session will include the thirteenth annual Alumni Weekend—July 28–July 30.

Books In addition to textbooks, the Russian Bookstore, located in Atwater House, carries classics and up-to-date novels, poetry, drama, and non-fiction. General supplies, and textbooks published in this country, may be purchased at the College Bookstore.

Realia Collection The purpose of this collection is to acquaint prospective teachers with visual aids which may prove helpful in their teaching; also to display material illustrative of the Russian creative genius—pictures, sculpture, icons, costumes, architectural models, objets d'art, etc., some of which are for sale. The Collection, housed in the Russian School Bookstore, will be open during regular Bookstore hours.

Language Laboratory Russian School students are urged to avail themselves of the excellent new facilities afforded by the Language Center. (See page 6). Mrs. Vukanovich will be available for assisting all those interested in improving their speech.

Self-Help Students may assist in defraying their expenses by waiting on table in the Russian dining hall. The remuneration is board, plus a credit on the room charge. Those interested should apply to the Director before March 15. Appointments will be announced about April first.

Scholarships A limited number of scholarships is available. These scholarships will be awarded on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. All applications must be made to or through the Director before March 15. Awards will be announced about April first. The Alumni Organization also provides a Scholarship; only former students of the Russian School are eligible.

The Margaret L. Fayer Memorial Scholarship is awarded to a returning student under the auspices of the Alumni organization of the Russian School.

The Anastasia Pressman Memorial Scholarship is awarded to a student working for a graduate degree at Middlebury, preferably a prospective teacher of Russian.

Correspondence Correspondence concerning courses, credits, degrees, and admission to the School or the Institute should be addressed to Dr. Mischa H. Fayer, Director of the Russian Summer School, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont. Correspondence concerning rooms, fees, and other general information should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College.
THE SPANISH SCHOOL, which celebrated its Fiftieth Anniversary last summer, in looking forward to ever greater achievements, will offer a broad program of Spanish studies this summer. A distinguished group of professors will participate in the program. Special emphasis will be given to the Spanish Golden Age: Professor Joaquín Casalduero, from the University of California (La Jolla), will lecture on Don Quijote and on The Drama of the Golden Age; Professor Francisco Rico, from Johns Hopkins University, on the Great Medieval Poets and on The Novela Picaresca; Mr. Ramón Piñeiro, from Santiago de Compostela (Spain) on the Seventeenth Century Essayists; and Professor Narciso Bruzzi Costas, from the City University of New York (Hunter College), on the History of the Spanish Language and on Stylistics.

New courses are offered to commemorate the centenary of two distinguished writers: one on Rubén Darío by Professor Eduardo Camacho, from the University of los Andes (Bogotá, Colombia); and another on Valle-Inclán by our Director Emilio González López. Ramón Piñeiro will also teach a course on The Thought of Unamuno. Two additional courses on Latin American literature are: Spanish-American Poetry after Rubén Darío by Professor Manuel Álvarez Morales, from the University of Puerto Rico; and the Contemporary novel by Professor Eduardo Camacho.

Four more panoramic courses complete this program: Historia de la civilización española by Professor Manuel Asensio from Haverford College; Historia de la civilización hispano-americana by Mr. Lamberto A. Cano, from Barnard College; Spanish American Literature by Mr. Lamberto A. Cano; and Spanish Literature by Mr. Juan Pablo Ortega, from Vassar College.

Those interested in perfecting their ability in the Spanish language can count on the guidance of a group of expert teachers of Phonetics and Grammar who have made our school the best known in the field.

Requirements for Degrees Candidates for the Master’s Degree must pass, before the completion of their work, an advanced course in each of the following subjects: Oral Practice, Grammar, Composition, Phonetics, and Methods, i.e. Courses 1, 2, 3, 4 and 10. In addition, at least 12 credits must be earned in the fields of Spanish and Spanish-American Literature and Civilization. Students who have transferred credit for an equivalent graduate course taken elsewhere may request release from the requirement. With the exception of certain basic courses, which are offered every summer, the program changes yearly in a cyclic form.

Books General supplies and text books published in this country may be purchased at the College Bookstore, in the Student Union Building. The Librería of the Spanish School is located in the social room of Hepburn Hall. Here the required books in the literature and civilization courses, and other titles printed abroad, are on sale.

The College Library has a Spanish library of over 8,000 titles, covering the areas of language, literature, history and civilization, selected to fill the needs of the students at every level. Representative periodicals of Spain and Spanish America are received, in order to inform the students of the most recent trends in literature and education in the Spanish speaking world.

Accommodations One of the most attractive features of the school is the friendliness which exists between the faculty and students, in no small measure due to the fact that the faculty and staff, as well as all students, reside in the dormitories. Gifford and Hepburn Halls provide attractive and comfortable accommodations. All members of the school take their meals together in the Proctor Dining Hall. A system of rotation provides an opportunity for all to become better acquainted. The offices of the Director and Dean are in the Sunderland Language Center.

Activities Activities outside the classroom are an important feature of life in the Spanish School. Whether it is a picnic, a game of croquet, a tennis or golf match, a dance or a hand of cards, the object is to live it and play it in Spanish and to broaden one’s acquaintanceship with every phase of Spanish life and customs. Spanish folk songs, good Spanish theatre, Spanish moving pictures, all are designed to add to the student’s enjoyment and knowledge.

Scholarships A few scholarships of $100 each will be available this summer. These awards will be made on the basis of need, merit, and scholastic promise. Application should be made to the Dean before March 15. The awards will be announced by April first.

The Juan A. Centeno Memorial Scholarship was established in the summer of 1949 by the students and faculty of the Middlebury Spanish Summer School, in memory of the beloved teacher who was Director of the School for fifteen years. The fund is still growing, and further contributions will be gladly received.

Self-Help A limited number of students may earn their board and a credit on their room charge by acting as waiters and waitresses in the Spanish dining-halls. Those interested should apply to the Dean before March 15; awards will be announced by April first.

Graduate School in Spain See the inside back cover of this bulletin.

Correspondence Communications regarding admission, courses, credits and degrees should be addressed to Prof. Samuel Guarnaccia, Dean of the Spanish Summer School, Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vermont. Correspondence concerning fees and rooms should be addressed to the Secretary of the Language Schools, Middlebury College.
The Graduate Schools

of French in France
German in Germany
Italian in Italy
Spanish in Spain

Middlebury College conducts a Graduate School of French in France, a Graduate School of German in Germany, a Graduate School of Italian in Italy, and a Graduate School of Spanish in Spain. Seventy-four American students are now enrolled in the University of Paris under this plan; forty-six students at the University of Mainz; nineteen at the University of Florence; and seventy-six in Madrid.

The students spend the academic year on a coordinated program of advanced instruction in linguistics, phonetics, literature, history, the arts and social institutions. These courses are followed in the Faculties or other divisions and institutes, or in specially arranged graduate study, in Paris, Mainz, Florence, and Madrid. The students work under the close guidance and supervision of a resident representative of Middlebury College. At the close of the year, final examinations are administered under his direction, and the successful candidates receive the Middlebury Master of Arts degree, in addition to any foreign certificates or diplomas which they may earn.

A preliminary summer of preparation at the Middlebury Summer School is normally required, and only those who prove themselves qualified are allowed to enroll. Members of the group are treated as mature graduate students. They make their own arrangements for transportation, board and room, with the advice and guidance of the Middlebury Director. The Director facilitates worthwhile social contacts, and assists their plans for travel, visits to museums, and attendance at theaters and concerts. Each member is officially enrolled as a graduate student at Middlebury College, and pays his tuition fee to the college; this covers all enrollment, examination, and other academic fees abroad.
